Fund manager comment

August was a negative month, as ruled by the seasonal nature of the equity markets. Investors are still waiting for a clear direction on the interest rate front as OECD economies are holding up well, particularly the US and The objective of this sub-fund is to replicate as closely as possible the inflation is improving only slowly. rising phases of the market while reducing risk during periods of

On a sector basis, the performing one have been correcting, i.e Autos, Banks. Cyclicals were clearly in the lagging camp whereas Energy and Pharma were outperforming the market.

The EuroStoxx50 index finished the period with a negative return of -3.9 % compared to the fund which ended optimise both the timing of specific and sector-related decisions and the month with a good relative performance with a return of -2.88 %. On the volatility front, the 100 days historical volatility is declining to 12.63 % for the fund and 13.71 % for the index. Looking at the 30 days average, the fund volatility dropped strongly to 7.75 % against 14.90 for the index.

> Anticipating a less friendly environment in the 3rd quarter we clearly increased the edging of the portfolio. We still expect some retracement and stay underexposed to the market for the moment.
